News digest

Yao Rested and Ready for Kings Again (AP)

AP - Yao Ming is refreshed. After a demanding few days in his hometown for the first NBA game in China, the Houston Rockets center has had some time to unwind since arriving in Beijing.

City to ponder Anelka future

MANCHESTER, Dec 15 (SW) - Manchester City chairman John Wardle has not ruled out a winter break move of French in-form striker Nicolas Anelka.

Barcelona return for Mourinho

Jose Mourinho, the Chelsea manager, last night talked about how quot;emotional quot; it will be returning to Barcelona in the last 16, knockout stage of the Champions League.

Woman drops sexual assault suit vs. Colorado

One of the three women suing the University of Colorado for what they said was the school s failure to protect them against sexual assault by football players has dropped her federal lawsuit.

Smith saves United

LONDON, Aug. 28. - Alan Smith scored a late equaliser for Manchester United today as the side tied 1-1 at Blackburn. Sir Alex Fergusons side looked headed for their second Premier League defeat of the

Glory Comes Amid Empty Seats and Closed Shutters

HERE in Old Europe, people install shutters outside their windows to keep out the heat, the pollution, the daylight, the noise. They also lock the shutters tight when they go away on holiday.