News digest

Bridgeway CEO to settle SEC fund charges - WSJ

A mutual fund manager long regarded by many as an advocate for the interests of fund shareholders is expected to pay $5 million to settle charges he overcharged his own investors by nearly that amount, the Wall Street Journal

Alitalia union may accept job cuts

A top Italian labor leader says his union could consider job cuts at Alitalia to prevent the airline s collapse, as workers at the flag carrier clamored for details of its cost-cutting rescue plan.

Consumer Confidence Hits 7-Month Low

NEW YORK (Reuters) - U.S. consumers turned more gloomy in October, beset by soaring energy prices, relentless violence in Iraq and the increasingly bitter end of the presidential election campaign.

Update 2: Oracle Poised to Pounce on PeopleSoft

Bolstered by investors, Oracle Corp. appears destined to complete its long-sought takeover of PeopleSoft Inc. unless its rival becomes more profitable and proves it s worth more than the $9.2 billion bid currently on the table.

BASS moving headquarters to Florida

The Bass Anglers Sportsman Society is moving its headquarters to Central Florida. The bass fishing organization, based in Montgomery since its inception in 1967, announced Monday

Holiday sales results lift Wal-Mart, Kmart

Wal-Mart Stores Inc. said a surge in after-Christmas shopping spurred December same-store sales gains of about 3 percent, at the high end of its forecast. Kmart Holding Corp. said profit rose 10 percent during the holiday season after it limited deep discounts.